World-Class Skiing — Choose Your Mountain Adventure

With three renowned resorts to choose from, Banff National Park gives you a variety of ways to enjoy the slopes. Your included ski passes provide two full days to explore whichever mountain (or mountains) you like best:

Lake Louise

Famous for its stunning scenery and wide variety of runs, Lake Louise offers over 4,200 acres of terrain. From scenic cruisers to challenging steeps, skiers of all levels can find their perfect run - all while surrounded by glaciers and towering peaks.

Sunshine Village

High in the Rockies and known for its reliable natural snow, Sunshine offers terrain across three mountains. With everything from easy groomers to double-blacks, plus panoramic views from every angle, it's a favorite for variety. The resort also straddles the Continental Divide, letting you stand in both Alberta and British Columbia at once.

Mt. Norquay

Just minutes from town, Norquay has a relaxed, local feel. It's smaller and less crowded, but full of charm, classic trails, and sweeping views of Banff below. It's also the only area resort offering night skiing — a unique way to end a day on the slopes.

Your Mountain Retreat: Moose Hotel & Suites

For three nights, you'll call the Moose Hotel & Suites home — a welcoming lodge just steps from downtown Banff. Blending alpine charm with modern comforts, it's designed to feel both inviting and indulgent. Spacious suites, cozy fireplaces, and sweeping mountain views set the scene for true relaxation.

After exhilarating days on the slopes, ease into the evening with a soak in the rooftop hot pools or hot tubs, where steam rises against the snowy peaks. Unwind further in a eucalyptus steam room, or simply enjoy the warm, rustic atmosphere of the hotel itself. With its ideal location and serene setting, the Moose offers the perfect balance of comfort and mountain magic.
